

Please do not change the rules governing media ownership. There is already far to much consolidation. The FCC's move to allow greater percentage ownership within a single market has severely hurt the community's access to broad and varied media.